Selectmen, Board of Aldermen and Common Council, ex-Governors, Judges of United States and State Courts, and other invited guests, will form on College Street, between Elm and Chapel Streets, right resting on Elm Street.

II.—The procession will move promptly at 11.00 o'clock A. M. Three strokes upon Centre Church bell will be given as a signal for the first division to move. The line of march will be through the following streets:—Up Elm to Howe, Howe to Chapel, Chapel to Orange, through Orange Street to Farnam Drive, Farnam Drive to the Monument in East Rock Park.

III.—When the head of the column arrives at York and Chapel Streets, the first division will halt and form in line, face to the front, dress to the right and prepare to receive the reviewing officers. The reviewing officers will then pass the line to the reviewing stand in front of the Hyperion. Having taken their position, the entire line will break into column of companies and pass in review. When the left of the column has passed the reviewing officers, the column will again halt, form in line and the reviewing officers, escorted by the Grand Marshal and Staff, will pass the line to their respective positions in the column, when the column will again take up the line of march for its destination.

IV.—When the third division arrives at the English Drive they will proceed up English Drive to the position assigned them at the monument.

V.—Upon arrival at the monument the first and second divisions will pass around the monument to the left and return down Farnam Drive to a point opposite the Whitneyville road, to the refreshment tents, where a collation will be provided.

VI.—After refreshments have been served and the necessary rest taken, the first and second divisions, except the Governor's Foot and Horse Guards, will return via Farnam Drive to Orange Street, Orange to Trumbull, Trumbull to State, State to Olive, Olive to Chapel, Chapel Street to the Green, where they will be dismissed.

VII.—The third, fourth, fifth and sixth divisions will remain at the monument during the dedication ceremonies and at the close return in a body via English Drive, over the same route as specified in section VI, and be dismissed at the Green.

VIII.—The seventh division (Fire Department), will not enter the Park, but will be dismissed at the Orange Street bridge.

IX.—The Governor's Foot and Horse Guards will return to the monument after being served with refreshments, and perform escort duty to the Governor and other guests, passing down English Drive to Orange Street, Orange to Trumbull, Trumbull to Temple, Temple to Chapel, Chapel Street to the Hyperion, where they will be dismissed.

X.—On the morning of the 17th inst. the Headquarters of the Grand Marshal will be established at the State House, north entrance, from 9.00 to 10.30 o'clock A. M.

XI.—The General Staff and Aids will report for duty at 9.00 o'clock A. M. Assistant Marshals not previously assigned to duty will report to General George M. Harmon, Chief of Staff, who will assign them a position in line. At 10.30 o'clock A. M. the Grand Marshal and Staff will take position at the right of the line on Elm Street, between Temple and College Streets, left resting on Temple Street. The success of the parade depends largely upon the promptness and regularity with which the column moves. And the announcement is made that the column will move precisely at the hour named. It is expected that Marshals of Divisions will be prepared to move their commands promptly on time.

By order of GENERAL EDWIN S. GREELEY,

Grand Marshal.
